Press releases!!!! Scottish Troops Stand by Regicide!!!!

London Times announced today that the entire house of Windsor ((Hannover?)) was utterly destroyed by a renegade band of Frey Muzzies. In an emergency meeting, Parliament has invited King Poul XXIII of Grinda, (a minor German principality similar to Grand Fenwick) to take the English Throne.
King Poul XXIII has declined the invitation, however, and is spending his time building a tower of beer cans in the Tower.

Oslo, Working People's Socialist Monarchy of Norway (PAP) King Poul XVI announced today that his cousin, Poul XXIII of the Glorious Working People's Technocratic Barony of Grinda had, in a recent communication, invited the people of Norway to a treacherous attack!

"It's almost like a put-up job," the misdeed is portrayed to ever, "I was supposed to accept the Kingship, and then, while you were all glad thinking I was sitting on trings, nice and easy, they were planning to send me to Canada for six months whilst Norway, Denmark, and Grand Fenwick job bashed!"
Pettition to Other Powers for Defensive Aid has been made...

From the agony column of the London Times, 28 May, 1901:

On the IDF, the rules, and the world...

The editors of the IDF Constitution (2 issues) seem to think that all that is needed for a successful IDF constitution is the perfect document, to be subsequently handed down as from on high, whence it should be accepted gleefully with open arms by the world...

Constitutions just don't develop that way. A constitution is supposed to be the written expression of the general population concerned, or at least that is what we were taught, first in Civics in High School, then in History, in College. So wonderful, so this is fine theory, but is it applicable?

There is a large movement in Diplomacy which apparently does not like what they see as a great IDF constitution about ready to be stuffed down THEIR collective throat. This comes directly from the general lack of discussion that has surrounded this foolishness.

We propose that the proponents of the IDF call off their speed demon desires to get the 'Quick 'n Dirty' constitution signed this Summer, and re-write that much-maligned document into the basis of an institution which every player and gamesmaster will find useful and congenial. Discussion in all the Diplomacy bullitens is totally necessary to this end. After all, most games of Diplomacy require perhaps 18 months to complete. Shouldn't the discussion of all this be expected to last some short time, also?

The rules of Napoleonic Diplomacy stand unchanged from last week. It should be noted, however, that rules 3b and 4 apply only to situations of single units on the part of the defender/power doing the convoy. Multiple unit situations will be handled in accordance with the rulebook (wheeeeeeeeeee)

and that is that°

While reading the latest revision of an anthropological text by the eminent Doctor, Count Alucard of Transylvania, Emperor Leopold Doornafachy LXth saw the following statement: "The ruler of the French can be humorously described as being mezomorphic tending toward endomorphic. Besides that, his throat needs salt." LD's comments- "Was der Teuffel ist hier los? Messofarcic? Das ist ein gross Entzetzlichkeit! Wir auf die Frogen Krieg werden machen! -- Bork!"

Good Luck°!!
